Workshop Summary:

Beginning Workshop:

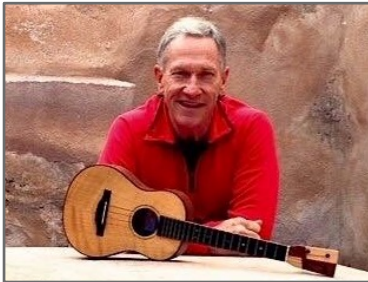

- In this workshop, you'll learn various techniques, including chord "shape" variations, picking and strumming for effect to really add more color and pizzazz to your playing.
- It will help if you know a few basic chords such as C, F, G7, E7, D7. You'll learn how to play those great standard chords in other shapes using more of the fret board.

Intermediate Workshop:

- You should be familiar with a few chord progressions, (I - vii - IV & V7) in C, G, F, & D.
- We will learn the same progressions with different shapes using more of the fret board.

For Both levels:

- In these very interactive workshops, you'll learn simple finger picking and strumming techniques to add POP to your playing.

Mark Baker (Http://markbakermusicaz.com) is a respected performer and clinician from Sun City, Arizona. He's recently given workshops in Dallas, TX, Albuquerque, NM, Tulsa, OK, Shreveport, LA, & Jacksonville, FL – just to name a few!

Mark will conclude each workshop with a short concert featuring original ukulele music from his album "And I Ride".
